Azelle Cabriolet
1500 €

The 2cv Azelle is a kitcar based on the Citroën 2CV. Alain Le Bihan markets through his company, his kit created in 1987 to transform a 2CV6 into a very elegant convertible. The rear part retains the wings and the original face, and the trunk lid takes up the pattern of the ribs of the bonnet.

With its descending windows and its articulated alpaca hood, it is certainly the most elegant of its kind.

Citroen DS 2000 €

After 18 years of secret development as the successor to the Traction Avant, the DS 19 was introduced on October 6, 1955 at the Paris Motor Show.

The Citroën DS are front mid-engined, front-wheel drive executive cars manufactured and marketed by Citroën from 1955 to 1975, in fastback/sedan, wagon/estate, and convertible body configurations, across three series of one generation.

Systeme Maserati 3000 €

The Citroen SM is a very rare and iconic luxury car, produced by the French manufacturer Citroën from 1970 to 1975. Only 12.920 were produced making it extremely difficult to find nowadays. Citroën purchased Maserati in 1968 with the intention of harnessing Maserati's high-performance engine technology to produce a true Gran Turismo car, combining the sophisticated Citroën suspension with a Maserati V6.
